ALL SAINTS' DAY WED. NOVEMBER 1

City Issues Proclamation Declaring Day of Holy Observance—Banks to Suspend Business For the Day.

Next Wednesday will be All Saints' and evidence of preparation for its customary observance is noted on all sides.

Extensive activities are noted in both the city cemetery and St. Mary's Catholic cemetery, where forces of men have been working for some time cutting weeds, clearing accumulated debris and trimming as well as whitewashing trees. The city of Bay St. Louis has proclaimed Wednesday a religious holiday and as such it will be observed as a holy day. According to this proclamation the banks of the city will be closed for the one day and many other places of business will suspend activities for the half day if not the whole.

Our city's care of the municipal cemetery is outstanding and the appearance as a result has frequently been the result of favorable and wide comment.

Local growers of flowers for All Saints' advertise in the columns of The Sea Coast Echo and, purchasers will find no difficulty in supplying their need for the day. As per custom, graves in the city cemetery will be blessed by the Catholic church during the afternoon hours at the usual hour and later the blessing and ceremony will take place at the foot of the calvary cross in St. Mary's.

RESIDENT RETURNS FROM TRIP

To Far Pacific Coast — J. Roland Weston back from Business Journey After Three Weeks' Absence.

J. Roland Weston returned home Monday after a three weeks' absence, during which time he traveled to and from Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, where he attended to matters of business and visited the place where he resided for a number of years while engaged in the timber and lumber business.

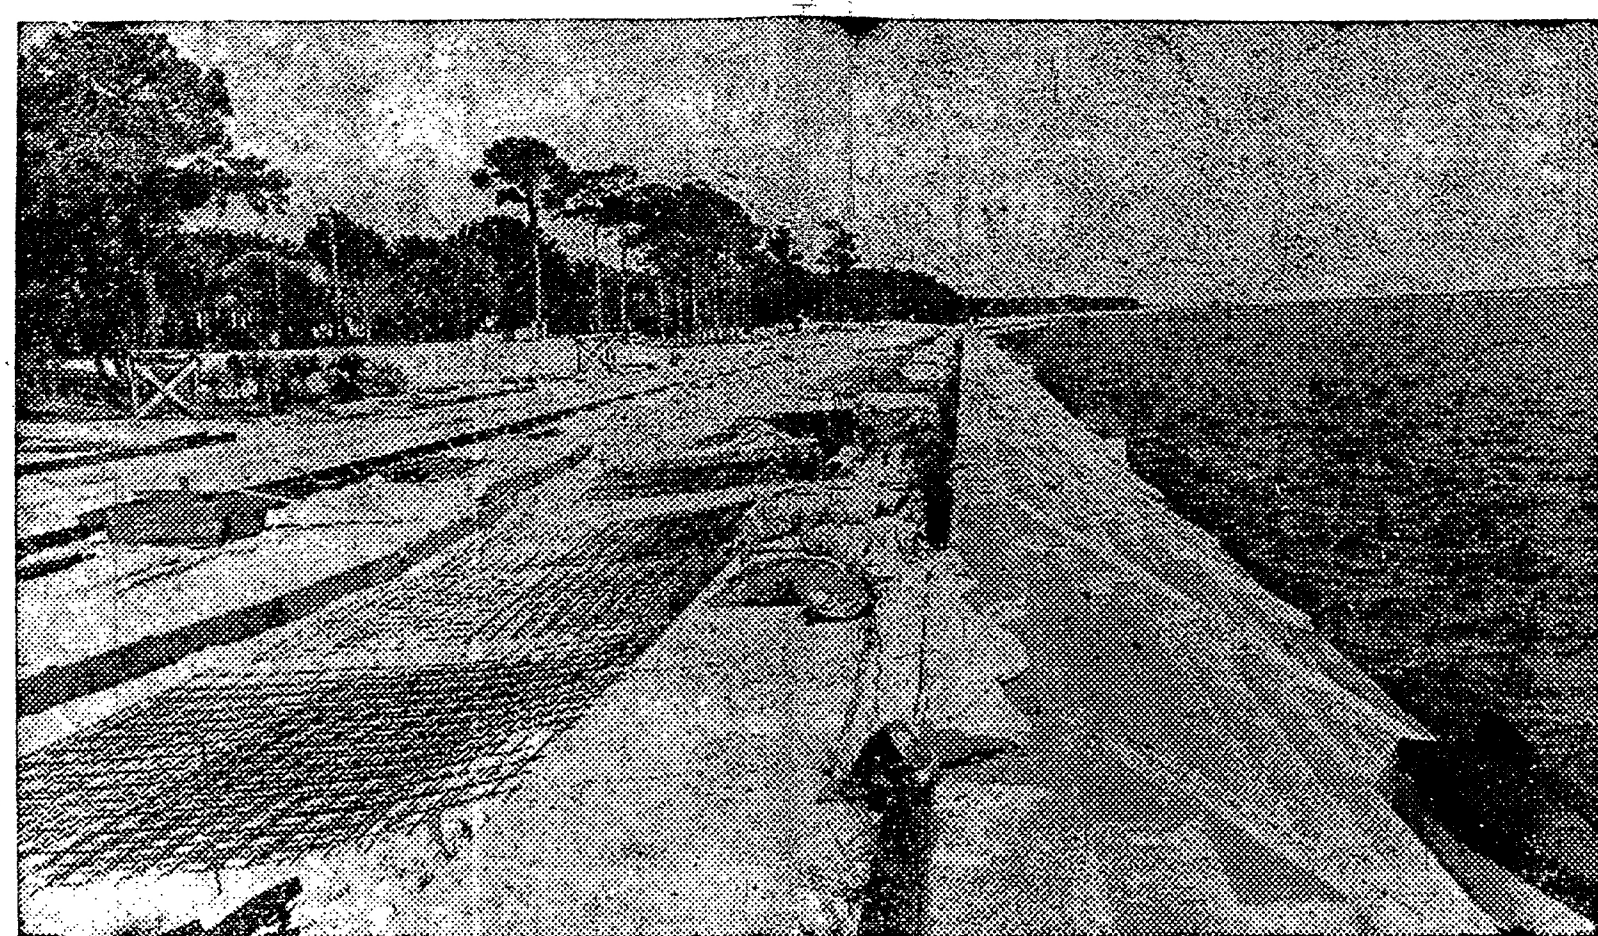

Mr. Weston reports business condition in the Far Pacific West exceptionally good. This was the reason after he had queried a number of public appeal and as a result of his transactions. He said it gave him a special feeling of satisfaction to learn of the young men he knew in former years, beginning life, had risen to places of established business success and were forging ahead in economic endeavor.

As to the repercussions of the war, Mr. Weston said the people of that section were almost oblivious of the conflict so busy are they with their own affairs and, further he said, it seemed the scene of war is so far away as to make it remote even in the minds of men. People are interested in their own affairs at home he said. Business, and more business, development of natural resources, and possibly as a matter of public appeal, speculating whether the president will permit his name to be presented for third term, etc.

He traveled by way of Chicago and commented on the fine train services out west and to the north-west. He said the railroads were making great strides and their progress was due to the fact they were gaining more business by attracting it with better and faster trains, more accommodations, better dining service, etc.

Commenting on the weather while in Portland, he said it was ideal. Cool and invigorating and dark clouds was the order of dress although, while other men wore vests he felt better without one. So much for warm southern blood.

American Riviera Follows Warm Gulf Waters

America's Riviera is being given new beauty and swifter ease. This is a view of the U. S. 90 double highway, with parkway down the center separating the opposing lines of traffic, now under construction on the Mississippi coast. Bathed by the bright, health-giving rays of the sun in the day, and glowing softly beneath the romantic magic of the moon at night, the Gulf Coast thoroughly justifies its name of America's Riviera. Modern highways are bringing increasing popularity and greater throngs to enjoy this playground of the nation each year, as State Highway Commissioner Hiram Patterson pushes additional new road construction to take care of increased traffic in this area.

MONSTER PARADE OF ALL CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS — CITIZENS PLAN FOR RED CROSS ROLL CALL NOV. 11

Observance of Armistice Day in Patriotic Manner Will Also Serve For Opening of Membership Drive in Hancock County—War Veterans, Scout Members, Members Of Civic Bodies and Citizens in General to Join In Demonstration Marking Day—Horace L. Kergosien, Chairman of Roll Call.

Horace L. Kergosien, roll call chairman of the American Red Cross for Hancock county, announces that plans are being formulated for a gigantic parade to take place on Armistice Day, November 11, in which all civic organizations are invited to take part as the main feature of the membership drive. Mr. Kergosien has enlisted the aid of the American Legion, Spanish War Veterans, Sea Scouts, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, all of whom will be well represented and the two school bands, Central High School and St. Stanislaus College to provide music for the marchers. All business houses are also invited to participate.

The parade will form at 9:30 A. M. at the courthouse and will begin marching at 10:00 A. M., going south down Second Street to Union, then to South Front, marching north to Front and Carroll avenue, and up Carroll avenue to Central School. Immediately following the parade, there will be short talks given in the Central School Auditorium and several speakers will commemorate Armistice Day, the program to be over by 11:15. Anyone planning to attend the football game, will have to wait until after the parade and the program and then attend the games.

It is intended that this parade will be the largest ever held in Bay St. Louis and every organization and business house in Bay St. Louis is asked to get in touch with Mr. Kergosien in order to receive proper instructions for their party in the parade.

The Red Cross Roll Call begins on November 11th and continues until November 23rd (Thanksgiving Day) and it is hoped that Hancock county, which has always reached its quota, will this year far surpass it, especially in view of the turbulent conditions in Europe and with war conditions facing the entire world.

With Europe again at war, we are reminded that twenty years ago many Americans at the close of the World War took it for granted that the Red Cross, like the Army and Navy, would complete its wartime commitments, demolish its forces and become a skeleton organization. Only the foresighted vision of the national and chapter leaders of the Red Cross realized that the need for a strong Red Cross to prevent and alleviate human suffering is as great in times of peace as in the stress of war. History has proved how wise was their decision to make the Red Cross peacetime program one of vital interest to the welfare of our people, and we are again called upon to relieve human suffering. Let us not be lacking in the call!

SPRIT OF THE FLOWER SHOW.

As announced in the news columns of The Sea Coast Echo last week Bay St. Louis will soon have its first flower show.

This is to be presented under the sponsorship of the Bay-Waveland Garden club and indications are to the effect the enterprise will easily prove a success of more than the ordinary kind.

The mere fact Bay St. Louis is to have a flower show is not significant as the spirit which prompted the organization of a garden club in our midst and now the announcement of the annual flower show.

The civic spirit which makes these things possible is significant and means more than the mere planting and growing of flowers. People who do things in a community are ones who count; build and construct rather than tear down. If we are sufficiently interested in the progress of our community to beautify it by beginning at home on our own premises then we have started right and this influence will spread thru other channels and for other influences.

November 11 and 12 are dates announced for the 'show.' The place yet to be selected.

The Sea Coast Echo backs this civic enterprise one hundred per cent.

HOW THE WAR AFFECTS US.

THERE may be people in the United States who think that we have nothing whatever to do with the war in Europe.

Let us assume, for example, that the war lasts several years, that it becomes the "blood-bath" that Herr Hitler predicts and that Germany, France and Great Britain alike are the victims of the wholesale destruction of property.

What has the United States to do with this? Simply this: A Europe, economically bankrupt, will be a poor customer of the United States and our economic ills will be aggravated. Regardless of which side wins the war, the United States cannot profit through commerce with a pauperized Europe.

In years past, Europe has been the best customer for our goods. The nations of that continent have at times taken much more than half of our exports. Even in recent years, although buying has been greatly reduced, the nations of the continent bought about forty per cent of what we sell the world.

BILLION FOR SCHOOLHOUSES.

TWO billion dollars have been spent in building school houses in the United States during the past five years says Dr. S. L. Smith director of public relations, Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.

He estimates that more school buildings were erected and repaired in the past year than in any other year of the nation's history.

Of the huge sum spent for schoolhouse construction in the last five years Federal aid amounted to $900,165,000 and involved projects that accounted for about 86 per cent of all construction. Apparently, without Federal aid schoolhouse construction would have been almost suspended.

There are buildings in every county in Mississippi that show some results of this policy. New schoolhouses have been constructed and old buildings have been improved. Incidentally, most of the money has been well-spent.

NOT A GOOD YEAR FOR FAIRS.

WHILE the beauty and color of the San Francisco Fair was a success, financially the enterprise fell far below the mark set out by its promoters. Debts in amount of $4,606,000 remain unpaid and assets are practically nil. The expected paid attendance fell short exactly half.

Why two major fairs of international interest are held the same year by and in one country does not exactly make business sense, even though New York and San Francisco are widely separated and each claim to be and are distinctively different, but the fact remains only comparative few are able to visit both enterprises.

The Jackson Daily News observer says this has not been a good year for fairs anywhere. "In fact, our own State Fair, while breaking all attendance records, had less receipts than last year."

DODGING BAD LUCK.

THERE are people in the world, who believe in signs and unlucky omens.

Friday, the 13th, is reputedly an unlucky day, according to some persons, who will avoid unaccustomed activity on such a combination of bad signs. So it was with Gilbert E. Males, of Dallas, Texas, who postponed the beginning of a vacation motor tour, scheduled to begin on Friday, the 13th, until after midnight in order to escape the unlucky beginning.

Less than three hours later, according to press dispatches, he was fatally injured in an automobile accident.

The U. S. Housing Authority in Washington has approved a loan of $972,000 for the construction of low-rent housing projects in the City of Biloxi. The cost of the projects will be $1,031,000.00.

Governor-elect Paul Johnson has named Col. H. J. Dolton as United States Property and Disbursement Officer for the Mississippi National Guard. This is Gov. Elect Johnson's first appointment.

FOR A FIVE-YEAR PLAN ADVERTISING GULF COAST.

THE sale this week at mortgage foreclosure of a Gulf Coast palatial hotel, costing over a half million dollars, for a mere pittance of some sixty thousand dollars and over tells a story of more slants than one and in the last analysis serves as a pathetic commentary.

The Tivoli Hotel was built during the time of the boom period in this section and also in answer to a condition of paucity of hotels of this type on the Coast; it came in answer to a condition that is too well known when tourists and others diverted their travels to other routes in order to enjoy better hotel facilities.

Several reasons are suggested why the hotel was not a success. First, it was built and began operating with a heavily bonded debt—secondly its location to the far-off eastern section of Biloxi put it out of place, of which we doubt. And third, just then several other hotels of its type sprung up over this section and the demand was more than surfeited. In fact, there was an over-saturation of hotel accommodation. A later reason is advanced to the effect the tourist camp and courts, the latter in competition with hotels, cut in heavily on the trade and the result was patronage lacked and the necessary business to make it 'go' in instances did not so much as to take care of the overhead. Over fifty per cent tourist camp patronage is not the hotel kind. Many people who travel do so because of tourist camp accommodation and that only.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast is in need of publicity, the right kind on an extensive scale in order to attract the hordes of visitors his way. Hotels in Florida and California are reported flourishing, as far as the term goes this present day. We need more people to travel this way. By the thousands, tens of thousands, to enjoy the marvelous climate of this section and the many other advantages only to be found here. People make for business and without their presence that particular patronage is lacking.

We look forward to the day when a large sum of money will be realized, money that we now spend for other and possibly useless purposes, and that a substantial say 5-year plan of advertising campaign will be inaugurated (or this section in order to bring it to the attention of the world).

We cannot do this job of proper printed publicity unless it is carried out on a massive scale. No pop gun efforts; no sporadic advertising, but like one heavy blanket over the sections we may draw from should this enterprise be initiated and carried thru.

People, and more people, population and more resident population for the Mississippi Gulf Coast is essentially lacking. There is nothing wrong with this God-favored country. Only that we keep our opportunities and advantages somewhat like a dark secret. Just like the merchant with a splendid stock, right prices and willing to serve but who fails to tell by proper advertising that he is in business and ready to serve.

The Mississippi State Advertising Commission, with its appropriation by the state of $100,000 has and is still doing splendid work. But this covers too wide a territory and is rather general for the Gulf Coast to reap direct and abundant results. We must concentrate, intensify this campaign of publicity and place our own Gulf Coast, from Bay-Waveland to Biloxi-Ocean Springs prominently if not conspicuously on the map—and put it there to stay. Our hotels, in season, should be filled to overflowing.

SHALL WE SEIZE BRITISH ISLANDS?

THE proposal that Great Britain and France be required to surrender their Western Atlantic insular possessions in part payment of their war debts to the United States has been made by United States Senators Bennett Champ Clark, of Missouri, and Ernest Lundeen, of Minnesota, both members of the Military Affairs Committee.

When we read about this proposal, about two weeks ago, we doubted that it was seriously advanced. Recently, however, Senator Lundeen in Senate debate, suggested that if the United States' armed forces took over the British West Indies "there wouldn't be a shot fired," because the British and French "are pretty busy on the Western Front."

Aside from the fact that the proposal is in line with the aggressive tactics of Hitler, Stalin and Japanese, and involves the use of force as a national policy, which the United States has agreed not to do by virtue of the Kellogg Pact, the proposal is based upon a morality in international affairs that carries an odor.

There may be virtue in the suggestion that the United States acquire the British and French islands in this hemisphere and that we pay the British and French for them, the payment to be credited on the war debts. This is one proposal, but it is not to be mixed up with the suggestion that the islands be seized by force.

JOKERS SCARE MAN TO DEATH.

THE approach of Hallowe'en reminds us that there are practical jokers who delight, whenever then can, to scare other people.

This may be all right with some individuals but there are persons, especially among the young, whose health can be badly damaged by practical jokers and their pranks.

An instance of this kind is reported from Fullerton, Mo., where a 26-year-old farmer went into his field at night to cut corn stalks, which he had not done in the daytime because of excessive heat.

The end of his field bordered a cemetery and as he reached the spot several white-garbed figures popped up, leaping toward him and moaning weirdly. The man, says the news report, was too frightened to run. Hours later, his parents found him, still hysterical.

About three weeks later he died in a state hospital where doctors said his death resulted from manic depression resulting from an unusually severe mental disturbance.

While it may be unusual for an adult to be so affected it is easily possible for youngsters to be seriously injured as a result of attempts to "scare" them. People with just a little bit of sense realize this and have nothing to do with such activities.

The Biloxi Guard Air Station is becoming one of the largest air bases in the country.

Hollywood Notes.

TWO pictures, based on the life of Thomas A. Edison, will be made by Metro. The first, "Young Tom Edison," will have Mickey Rooney in the title role and will get underway just as soon as the youthful star finishes work on "Judge Hardy and Son." In the second film, "Edison, the Man," Spencer Tracy will portray the inventor.

Two new young girls, which we believe are destined to achieve coveted popular acclaim are Wanda McKay and Brenda Joyce. Wanda whose real name is Dorothy Quackebush, began her career as a model in New York, then she became Miss American Aviation. Her first role was in $1,000 a Touchdown. "Brenda's name is Betty Leabo.

As an answer to "The Women," Metro will produce "The Earl of Chicago," with an all-male cast. Robert Montgomery will lead the cast and Richard Thorpe will direct.

2,250 extras were used on a single set of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," thereby breaking the 13-year-old record for extras held by "Ber Hur."

"Drums Along the Mohawk," Twentieth Century-Fox's production of Walter D. Edmond's book when released will be the longest Technicolor feature ever made—fourteen reels.

If his health permits, William Powell will play the masculine lead in "Susan and God," opposite Greer Garson, which is to be produced soon by Metro.

In order to help fill the coffers of the film industry, badly stricken by the war abroad, it is possible that the most glamorous personal appearance session in movie history is in prospect. It may be that star-ship-shippers may have the privilege of seeing in person such stars as Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, or even Shirley Temple—if a price can be arranged which is satisfactory to their studios and to the theater owners.

Frank Craven, noted stage and screen player, has been signed to essay his famous role as the narrator in "Our Town" in Sol Lesser's production of the Pulitzer Prize-winning Thornton Wilder play.

It is said that Ronald Coleman and his wife, Benita Hume, now occupy the position of leaders of Hollywood society formerly occupied by Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, Sr.

While Metro tries to figure how it can cut production costs on the next Jeanette MacDonald-Nelson Eddy picture—"Love Come Back to Me," from the million-dollar figure to its maximum per picture of $150,000, Jeanette is lolling in more of less idleness but drawing somewhere around $5,000 per week just the same.

Richard Greene, one of the recent British imports into Hollywood, is anxiously trying to pick up all American slang and polish off his British accent in order to become the "hail-fellow-type."

THE GOLDEN FALL.

(West Point Leader)

The fall season is here. The golden rod gleams from the fields, and the leaves of the trees are tinged with colors of autumn. The nights are cool and zippy. We step with lighter, easier strides.

But the world, being what it is, a mixture of good and bad, wise and foolish, the fall season has its dangers.

Traffic is heavier on our streets and highways. Night comes earlier, often catching those who are hurrying home, and accidents, you know are more frequent at twilight.

Fall, too, ushers in the hunting season. The guns that crack in the fields and woods often take their human toll.

There are increased dangers from fires.

Maybe the red leaves now beginning to appear in the woods are red flags, and a warning signal for us to be more careful.

HE IS A FORTUNATE MAN— HE IS AN AMERICAN.

(N. Y. Sun.)

"He is an American. He hears an airplane overhead, and if he looks up at all does so in curiosity, neither in fear nor in the hope of seeing a protector. His wife goes marketing, and her purchases are limited by her needs, her taste, her budget, but not by degree.

He comes home of an evening thru streets which are well lighted, not dimly in blue. He reads his newspaper and knows that what it says is not concocted by a bureau but an honest untrammelled effort to present the truth. He has never had a gas mask on. He has never been in a bombproof shelter.

His military training, an R. O. T. C. course in college, he took because it excused him from the gym course, and it was not compulsory. He belongs to such fraternal organizations and clubs as he wishes.

He adheres to a political party to the extent that he desires—the dominant one, if that be his choice, but with the distinct reservation that he may criticize any of its policies with all the vigor which to him seems proper—any other as his convictions dictate, even, if it be his decision, one which holds that the theory of the country is wrong and should be scrapped.

He does not believe, if his party is out of power, that the only way in which it can come into power is through a bloody revolution.

He converses with friends, even with chance acquaintances, expressing freely his opinion on any subject without fear.

He does not expect his mail to be opened between posting and receipt, nor his telephone to be tapped.

He changes his place of dwelling, and does not report so doing to the police.

He carries an identification card only in case he should be the victim of a traffic accident.

He thinks of his neighbors across international borders—of those to the north as though they were across a state line, rather than as strangers since they speak a language different from his, and with the knowledge that there are now matters of difference between his government and theirs, but of neither with an expectancy of war.

He worships God in the fashion of his choice, without lot.

His children are with him in his home, neither removed to a place of greater safety, if young, nor if older, ordered ready to serve the state with sacrifice of limb or life.

He has his problems, his troubles, his uncertainties, but all others are not over-shadowed by the imminence of battle and sudden death.

He should struggle to preserve his Americanism with its priceless privileges.

He is a fortunate man.

He is an American."

MISSISSIPPI PAVED ROADS INVITE TOURISTS SOUTH

Greatest invasion in history is forecast in the near future for Mississippi. Two huge motorized armies are expected soon to combine and move upon the state, bringing prosperity and goodwill.

War in Europe and deluxe paved roads in Mississippi mean those two great pleasure-seeking armies, tourists and annual migrants to the South, which previously marched in detouring directions to leave the state shunned in inglorious isolation now will converge here to enjoy attractions that before could not be seen for the dust, mud and bumps.

The first World War from 1914 to 1918 left American tourists nation-bound and created the slogan "See America First." It can be foreseen with certainty, therefore, that the present European chaos will cause rise of a similar condition. The long, smooth ribbons of new pavement that now span this state will be an irresistible magnet to the again nation-bound thousands.

Swiftly moving efficiency of the State Highway Department and carefully planned economy of the State Highway Commission in constructing modern paved highways second to none in the nation assures Mississippi of such popularity and recognition as she has never known before. The super highway system being so rapidly and lastingly built is proving to be all the former wall-flower needed to transform her into the most sought-after and popular of the 48 sister states.

Rich in climate, natural resources, history and scenic beauty, Mississippians are already noting that paved highways are proving a big dividend paying investment in increased trade and tax collections.

Roads in Mississippi are being made all-weather highways that motorists from coast to coast are seeking. Many will now swing south through Mississippi to avoid hazards of northern snow and ice. Once traffic was diverted around the state. Now Mississippi roads are being recommended.

The greatest tourist year in her history is ahead, and Mississippi highways are ready. From the motorists' standpoint, Mississippi, through her expanding highway system, is rejoining the Union.

Hospitable welcome is now extended to the tourist coming Mississippi by five north-south paved highways 11, 51, 61, 45, and 49 and 48W, and Highway 15 with but 20 miles to be constructed; and those routing east-west are pleasantly greeted by paved highways 78, 80, 82 and 90, and Highway 84 is fast being completed with but 22 miles to be placed under contract.

Keep Fires Out—Give Nature A Chance to Bring Back Prosperity.

By J. S. Shaw Ranger Hancock Co. (In Miss. Forest Magazine)

Nature is the work of God and governs all things. It is my intention only to cover part of one particular subject in this article and that is our forests—the most valuable natural resource Mississippi has ever had.

Many years ago when the white man came to explore this great land of ours nothing was more pleasing to the eye than the beautiful virgin forests that covered Mississippi from one end to the other. I am sure that he did not find anything more valuable even though he probably did not realize the forest's potentialities. Even our fathers and grandfathers overlooked this great asset. They thought of land almost entirely from crop production standpoint, giving little thought to conservation methods.

This is where nature is trying to do something for us, and we in turn, as a whole world benefit by not destroying her work. There is no land in the world that will grow timber faster than ours. All we need to do is let it alone. It is unnecessary to cultivate or plant if you have a sufficient amount of seed trees on the land. Nature will plant your seed and furnish nourishment to grow your trees, provided you do not burn them. Do you not believe it is a sin to destroy the works of nature? We know it is violating the laws of our state to burn the woods, and I firmly believe it is a violation of God's laws to destroy His works.

Our forests could furnish continuous employment to our people if we through proper logging methods and fire protection lend a helping hand to God's work of growing trees. When we regrow our forest, there is nothing which holds any greater future for our state than this natural asset. Every time we burn the woods and destroy the young growth, we are robbing ourselves and our children.

If you have a desire to burn the woods, or know someone who does burn the woods, let us say to ourselves, or to them, "Where will this fire stop, whose property will be destroyed whose life may be endangered, how much livestock will be trapped and burned, just how

SODALISTS ELECT CHAIRMEN TO HEAD VARIOUS DIVISIONS

Successful Year in Sodality Work Expected.

The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary held its election for the chairmen of the various committees October 14, at St. Stanislaus. The chairmen, after being elected, chose the various members to work in the departments of the Sodality.

The Eucharistic Committee is headed by Co-Chairmen Tom Klempeter and Russell Lafferty. The members working in that committee are: Hugh Blanchard, Felix Blanchard, Peter Benvenuti, and Arthur Perez.

The Our Lady's Committee has Harvey Peltier, chairman; members: Robert Guilbault, Oscar Pacheco, Keith Hardie, William Waters and Henry Molinet.

The Publicity Committee is led by Augustin Quintero and Manuel Balmesera. Those working in that division are: Nestor Blanco, Harold Lockwood, Jasper Aucoin, Jose Perez, James Stephens, Emile Salvo, and Jeff Rebstock. Quintero led the same committee last year.

The Catholic Student Mission Crusade is a unit of the Sodality and will hold regular meetings once a month. Robert Harless was elected chairman; Jack Landry, secretary; and Tom Klempeter, treasurer. The members of that unit will volunteer to join and will be required to pay a small fee.

The Finance Committee which is in charge of Arthur Gianelloni, is composed of Edward Little, Hugh Burbank, Edward Murtagh, George Comeaux, Douglas Kuylen and Henry Molinet.

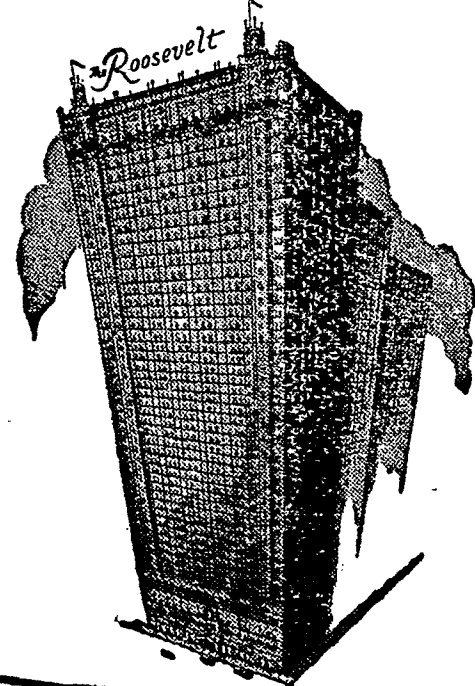

A new committee formed this year is that of the "Queen's Work" Committee. It is for the purpose of encouraging and acquiring subscriptions for the "Queen's Work," the National Sodality organ. This committee is headed by Edward Arce-neaux. Those working in that division are: Oscar Pacheco, Robert Guilbault, Elmer Breewood and Richard Fechtelheim.

The Publicity Committee and the Our Lady's Committee have already started working. Posters have been placed in the bulletin boards and the boys have been encouraged to purchase prayer beads and use them, especially during this month, the month of the Holy Rosary.

The "Queen's Work" committee has obtained a few subscriptions for the Sodality paper, but it is expected that at least twenty-five subscriptions will be acquired before the end of the month.

Other minor committees will be selected later.

much valuable timber will be damaged; how much good winter grazing range will be destroyed and how much erosion will occur? Then search your mind for one reason why you should burn the woods. I am sure that you cannot find one. The only reason seems to be an indifference to the laws of God and the laws of the land.

CARE OF ROSES.

Black spot and mildew may attend rose leaves at any time now even if they have not appeared yet. A sulphur dust will combat both of these fungi. Also copper sulphate in sprays will prevent the unsightly work of blackspot.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

If you have carefully tended chrysanthemums, dahlias and roses the year round and are hopeful of beautiful fall blooms, plenty of spraying, watering and feeding must be accomplished, together with a constant watch must be kept to avoid the bad effects of even some slight neglect.

Thrips are the gardener's first care for spraying and ferning and watering go on almost regularly. On chilly nights, thrips will seek the protection of the finest and most cherished buds and unless destroyed immediately, more and more buds will suffer. Care must be exercised also in the watering of plants as buds will suffer heavily from spraying, whereas soaking at the root is a better procedure and lessens the possibility of hurting the buds and foliage.

Roses and chrysanthemums must be continually fed until color appears in the buds, and the soil around the roots must be cultivated until they bloom.

Now is the time to look over trees to see if insects or diseases are doing any damage. If so, remedial measures should be taken at once. Dead or overcrowded limbs and branches should be removed now before the leaves fall as unprotected wood is more noticeable when other branches are in foliage.

Where flower beds are being set out under trees, surface feeding should be given. To help form buds for spring, a deep surface feeding may be given and a slow-acting fertilizer used so as not to stimulate the trees to active growth now which will be killed by early frosts. A good method of fertilizing is piercing the ground around the trees with some sharp-pointed instrument to a depth of 18 inches, inserting fertilizer, filling the hole with water and when it has become absorbed filling it to the surface with earth.

Cuttings should be Set Out Now. This is the time of year when cuttings of some plants will root easily. Poinsettia branches that need to be cut off can be put into the ground to form new plants. Box, which will root almost anytime, may be started now to be set out in a new yard after a fall move or to be used in the same yard. This evergreen will do better in shade than sun.

Barbados cherry is a beautiful plant and is native of tropical and semi-tropical climes and from May through the warm weather blooms in sprays of little, fragrant, pink flowers that make splendid cut flowers and which in fall and winter is covered with small red berries.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

RICE is an inexpensive, wholesome food that offers many possibilities to the planning of well-balanced economical meals. The most important of all rice dishes is boiled rice, as it is the basis of most all rice recipes; therefore, it is necessary to master the art of cooking it properly before attempting any other rice dishes.

Boiled Rice

Wash the rice in cold water several times. Have ready boiling water—8 times as much water as rice—adding 1 teaspoon of salt to each quart of water. Add the rice to the water slowly, taking care not to let the water stop boiling. Let cook, undisturbed, for 25 minutes or until the rice is tender. When done empty the rice in a colander and pour hot water through it until the grains separate. Drain, place the colander in a saucepan and let stand on back of stove for 10 minutes.

Salmon Rice Fritters

Mix thoroughly equal parts of cold boiled rice and minced salmon. Dip by spoonfuls in beaten egg, then bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat.

Ham and Rice Custard
Cook ½ green pepper, chopped, and 2 slices of onion in 4 tablespoons of fat until light brown. Remove the onion and put in 1 cup of cooked ground ham and saute until golden brown. Add 1 cup of milk, 1 cup of rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 well beaten eggs. Turn into a greased baking dish and bake in an oven 250 degrees about 30 minutes.

Rice Delight

1 lb. pork sausage meat
2 cups cooked rice
1 can tomato juice
1 small onion grated
Grated cheese
Fry the pork sausage meat until done, stirring continuously to keep particles of meat well separated. Add the cooked rice and mix well. Grease baking dish and put in a layer of grated onion and another layer of rice and sausage. Dot the top layer with grated cheese. Pour over all the tomato juice and bake in a moderate oven for 1 hour.

Creamed Eggs With Chili and Rice

To 2 cups of well seasoned medium white sauce add 1 teaspoon of Chili powder and 6 hard-boiled eggs, which have been cut in quarters. Meanwhile cook 1 cup of rice, season and arrange in a border around the platter. Pour egg mixture in the center.

Rice Pudding

2 cups milk
3 eggs
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons cooked rice
3 tablespoons melted butter
Nutmeg
Beat eggs well add sugar and butter; add milk, then rice. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Bake in oven 275 degrees until firm.

Chicken and Rice en Casserole.

1 green pepper, shredded
2 cups cooked rice
1 ½ cups chopped, cooked chicken
¼ teaspoon salt
Paprika
1 cup milk
½ cup bread crumbs
Saute green pepper in a little fat until tender, but not brown. Put a layer of cooked rice in the bottom of a greased casserole. Cover with layer of chicken and pepper. Repeat layers until all is used. Season with salt and pepper and pour milk over all. Cover top with crumbs and dots of butter. Bake in an oven 350 degrees for 15 minutes.

Black Gold Flows

This derrick marks the spot of the biggest Mississippi news of 1939, the striking of oil in Yazoo county September 5th. Shortly after this story was flashed to the world, State Highway Commissioner Sidney T. Roebuck of the Central District and his engineers were checking with county supervisors to see that adequate highway facilities were available to serve this newly discovered Mississippi's natural resources, thus speeding drilling and marketing operations. This epoch making spot, 12 miles southwest of Yazoo City on State Highway 3, is well worth a special trip by all Mississippians. From the constantly increasing number of wells there, new and untold wealth is pouring into the state, and the population in the area affected has taken a huge jump.

3501, 3502, 3503, 3504, 3505, 3506, 3507, 3508, 3509, 3510, 3511, 3512, 3513, 3514, 3515, 3516, 3517, 3518, 3519, 3520, 3521, 3522, 3523, 3524, 3525, 3526, 3527, 3528, 3529, 3530, 3531, 3532, 3533, 3534, 3535, 3536, 3537, 3538, 3539, 3540, 3541, 3542, 3543, 3544, 3545, 3546, 3547, 3548, 3549, 3550, 3551, 3552, 3553, 3554, 3555, 3556, 3557, 3558, 3559, 3560, 3561, 3562, 3563, 3564, 3565, 3566, 3567, 3568, 3569, 3570, 3571, 3572, 3573, 3574, 3575, 3576, 3577, 3578, 3579, 3580, 3581, 3582, 3583, 3584, 3585, 3586, 3587, 3588, 3589, 3590, 3591, 3592, 3593, 3594, 3595, 3596, 3597.

There coming on for consideration by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi the matter of allocating the gasoline excise tax levied and collected under the authority and provisions of section 6330 of the Mississippi Code of 1930, and which was paid into the County Treasury during the months of July, August and September 1939 and the Board doth find and adjudicate that there are sufficient funds on hand in the proper sinking fund for the redemption of the interest accruing on and to provide a sinking fund for the retirement of all bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness issued by the county for Road Protection under the provisions of Chapter 165 of the Mississippi Code of 1930 and Acts amendatory thereto; and that collections of the months of June, July, August and September 1939 will not be needed for any deficiency in the amount collected by the county for the month of July, August and September 1939 and the Board doth find and adjudicate that no deficiency exists or will exist in the funds necessary for such purpose, and that the interest collected and to be collected from said excise tax for said months of June, July, August and September 1939 will not constitute an overplus and will not be required for the payment of principal and interest of such outstanding bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, or such refund and that it is necessary that such surplus funds be used for repairs and maintenance of the county roads;

Be it therefore ordered by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi that all of the receipts from the gasoline excise tax levied and collected under the authority of Section 6330 of the Mississippi Code of 1930, and Acts amendatory thereto paid into the Treasury of said county during the months of July, August, September and October 1939 from such collections of June, July, August and September 1939 be placed to the credit of the county road fund; and that the Clerk of this board issue the necessary warrants or receipts warrants for the payment of said taxes into the said county road fund for said month.

SAWMILL FIRM, BAXTER & WHEAT BACK OF BAY PROVIDE EMPLOYMENT

To Many Heads of Families Residing in and Territory Adjacent to City—Produces Fine Quality Lumber That is Shipped to Foreign Ports, Principally to Havana—Firm Benefactors to Working Classes Hereabouts.

A beehive of industry is the sawmill of Messrs. Roy Baxter and John B. Wheat located out Washington street where the street resolves into a roadway out thru the section of the country where the pines grow tall and thick.

This quality of timber is above the average and the several grades for market are turned out here daily with a force of some thirty workers, in the mill, the yards and nearby forest.

The mill is a semi-portable type, supplied with ample power by the means of a huge gas engine, that drives with unmistakable force and never missing. The circular saw plows through the long pieces of timber and soon lumber for export shipping is ready for handling on the yards.

Each piece is dipped into a solution for preservative, purpose and, according to size, is taken away and set up in high stacks to dry and season.

The lumber is for export business only. Messrs. Baxter and Wheat make no local sales, and no domestic shipments. It is all foreign. Going from here by truck it is conveyed to New Orleans where it is placed on board vessels, bound for South and Central American ports. Principally, however, the shipments are made to Havana, where the lumber is used for house and other construction. There is no timber in that section, hence no lumber. And many a house in Cuba is constructed with lumber from Mississippi and Hancock county.

Among the benefactors to a community are people who band their resources and create industry providing for employment to people willing to work. This is exactly what Messrs. Baxter & Wheat are doing. Their industry is a benefactor to much of the surplus labor in that section back of Bay St. Louis where the mill is located.

The firm owns considerable timbered lands locally and will continue providing work for thirty or forty men for a long time to come, it was said. Contributing to the local payroll, the backbone of any community.

Product from this mill, operated by this particular firm, finds a ready market. The timber is well graded and the quality called for in the different grades is never jacking. Men of honest purpose and whose integrity is never questioned, have made a success of their various business enterprise for the reason their methods are of the honest type, the one and only way of doing business.

It is not surprising then to find their mill sells all of its possible output and there are at all times customers with constant demands.

A drive out Washington street will find the mill and its men busily engaged and the yards carry a large and varied stock. It is surprising to note the fine quality of lumber yet procurable in this section after all one hears from time to time that the timber in South Mississippi is cut out.

ROCKS WILL MEET G. C. M. A. CADETS FRIDAY, OCT. 27.

A strong G. C. M. A. Cadet team will invade the Coast this Friday night, October 27 to meet the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws. This will be the first game with a Coast team, played on the home field.

When the subject of playing the Cadets comes up to the minds of all Rock-A-Chaw fans, an inevitable discussion springs up; last year's encounter which resulted in a victory for the home team. Though greatly handicapped by the inability of two Rock stars, the boys played a game never to be forgotten by those who saw it. But St. Stanislaus crossed the goal line twice to the Cadets none. The score was 13-0.

The St. Stanislaus team is still nursing injuries received in the game with St. Aloysius but the regular line-up will probably start the game. The Cadets lost to a strong eleven from Istrouma, while the Rocks have bowed to Foley and St. Aloysius and Moss Point.

"THE WIZARD OF OZ" TO BE AT A. & G. THEATER, SUN.-MON.

Story of Little Farm Girl Who is Blown by Cyclone To the Magic Land Of Oz.

Successfully combining for the first time adult and juvenile appeal in a motion picture fantasy, "The Wizard of Oz," comes to the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday for an engagement of 2 days.

Hollywood believes that "The Wizard of Oz" basically served as the ideal fantasy for such an opportunity. The book has been read by eighty millions since it was written in 1900 and has always had as many grown-up readers as children. L. Frank Baum wrote to entertain children and to give grown-ups philosophy which would delight them. This has been transferred to the screen.

Producer Mervyn LeRoy increased this all-family popularity by making the picture one hundred per cent musical with catchy tunes and clever lyrics. He next added Technicolor and amazing "magic" which will intrigue audiences of all ages. He sought reality by keeping make-ups in character but natural so that all stars could be recognized easily. Lastly, he awarded the direction to Victor Fleming, famed for "Captains Courageous" and "Test Pilot."

Featured in the picture are Judy Garland as Dorothy, Frank Morgan as the Wizard, Ray Bolger as the Cowardly Lion, Billie Burke as Glinda the Good Witch, Margaret Hamilton as the Wicked Witch, Charley Grapewin as Uncle Henry, Pat Walshe as Nikko and Clara Blandick as Aunt Em. Practically every member of the cast is from musical comedy and all were stage celebrities.

The story has been maintained intact and no Oz redare will be disappointed in the screen version. With increased realism to make Dorothy's trip to Oz more believable, the story tells how the little Kansas farm girl gets caught in a cyclone and believes she is carried to Oz where, she meets a Scarecrow who wants brains, a Tin Woodman who wants a heart and a Lion who seeks courage. They all go to the Wizard to ask him to grant their wishes. Dorothy's wish is to go home again. After many thrilling experiences they finally get what they seek because the Wizard shows them it was within their own power to have these things all the time.

The picture is replete with amazing settings including the Emerald City, the buildings of which are great emerald domes and spires, the Land of the Munchkins with giant Hollyhocks larger than men, the Palace of the Wizard and the fantastic streets of Oz, all filmed in Technicolor.

Included in the musical score are six new songs written by E. Y. Harburg and Harold Arlen, among them: "Over the Rainbow," "If I Only Had a Brain, the Serve, a Heart," "We're Off to See the Wizard," "The Merry Old Land of Oz," "Ding Dong, the Witch Is Dead" and "If I Were King of the Forest."

THE BAWI PROGRAM.

The West Point Times-Leader has this to say concerning Gov. White's Balance Agriculture with Industry program, now working successfully wherever it has been tried:

Here in West Point, where the idea of balancing agriculture with industry was born, it would be futile to minimize the importance of the program to which Governor White has devoted his splendid talents.

West Point, you know, pioneered in the erection of factory buildings at public expense. More than a year before the State's new industry law went into effect West Point erected a factory building under the guise of a "vocational school," at a cost of approximately $75,000, and it has proved to be one of the best investments any community ever made.

This local building is now entirely out of debt, is occupied by two garment factories, and gives regular employment at fair wages to more than 500 persons who would otherwise be unemployed.

The 1940 legislature will show common sense if it re-enacts the Balance Agriculture with Industry statute without a single amendment, despite the fact that during the recent state campaign Judge Paul Johnson said the program was "all bunk." That's something he will have to prove to the satisfaction of the new lawmaking body and he can't do it in the face of the evidence—Jackson News.

Survey shows sharp rise in Democratic chances for 1940.

ROCKACHAW TEAM TO PLAY G. C. M. A. THIS FRIDAY NIGHT.At St. Stanislaus Stadium—Both Teams Are Evenly Matched—Great Game Expected.

Having lost a heart-breaker to the Tigers of Moss Point last Friday night, the Rockachaws are pointing for a place in the win column when they meet the Cadets of Gulf Coast Military Academy tonight at the Stanislaus stadium.

Although the G. C. M. A. team is not a highly rated eleven this season, Coach Burge isn't taking any chances. The Rocks went through hard scrimmages, signal practices and blackboard work throughout the week. Yesterday afternoon, the team was out in practice uniform instead of the usual game suits.

The Gulf Coast team, like the Saint Stanislaus team, has only three regulars from last year's lettermen. However, both squads have been improving nicely and an interesting game is expected.

The Saint Stanislaus team has been showing real fight and hard playing especially since two of the regulars had to be replaced. Every one admired the courage of the Rocks in the Saint Aloysius game, and the same spirit prevailed thru the Moss Point game.

One of the best games of the '38 season was against G. C. M. A. Anyone who witnessed this game still remembers the hard fought battle. Tonight, both teams will again be playing with all their might.

G. C. M. A. has lost many of last year's players, but it still retains a heavy line and a fast backfield. The odds are against the Rocks, naturally, since the local team's line is very light, but the fighting spirit displayed in past games, will give the invaders many a headache.

Last year's victory was a break in G. C. M. A.'s three-year string of victories. Whether they will return to the win column or not is a debatable question, but they surely seem to come with vengeance written all over their faces.

According to rumors, both teams seem evenly matched. Consequently, a mighty good game is assured.

The game is called for 8 o'clock. Admission: 50c and 25c.

W. A. McDONALD & SONS BUILDING FOR ADDED LUMBER ROOM SPACEEnlarging Stock Quarters For Dry Lumber In Order To Better Supply Trade.

Believing that standing still is going backward and in order to meet their constantly-increasing business, the local firm of W. A. McDonald & Sons is having constructed at the present time a 50-foot extension of their lumber stock building, a continuation of the present building in Esterbrook street, which is a marked expansion.

This building will add largely to the stock capacity of the present structure and will enable the firm to carry larger selections of quality lumber and stock of dry lumber. Since the large county mills have no more it is necessary to carry large stocks in order to meet demands for immediate delivery and the enterprise of Messrs. W. A. McDonald and Sons will meet this condition and whenever an emergency arises. This building is attractively designed and is a contributing factor to the community as a business and busy center.

—The club discussed at this meeting the matter of limitation of passes to games and were of the opinion that since the season tickets are so small and general admission to the games so little there should be no reason for anyone asking for passes to the different contests.

The club hopes for complete cooperation from the school authorities in this matter since it is one of the aims of the Boosters to help build up the finance of the school's athletic fund. The City Council is co-operating with the club 100 per cent.

We hope that all members of the club and the public in general will be able to attend this week's game to be played Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at St. Stanislaus Stadium. The High School Band will stage a parade through the business part of town at 1:30 Friday afternoon.
